- 25X1A6a 25X1X6
1. [REDACTED] CHIANG Kai-shek stated [REDACTED] that he would welcome the return of LI Tsung-jen to Taipei, as Vice-President if LI is willing. CHIANG believes that LI can get American aid and also that the split in the Nationalist camp is not beneficial. 25X1X6
2. CHIANG's apparent sincerity made a distinct impression on [REDACTED], who went away with the feeling that a reconciliation between LI and CHIANG depends now 25X1X6 on LI and what he can obtain in the United States. [REDACTED] LI should announce his acceptance of CHIANG's suggestion, except that he should remain in the United States as liaison between Taiwan and the Americans. 25X1X6
3. [REDACTED] PAI Chung-hsi [REDACTED] that there are approximately 120,000 troops of LI's former Central China Command now operating as guerrillas in Kwangsi, with the support of the Nationalist Government to the extent of 100,000 silver dollars per month.
4. PAI does not consider that he is being held captive by the Nationalists. He favors a reconciliation between CHIANG and LI.
